FROM THE CLUB

On behalf of Sydney Olympic Football Club, I would like to welcome our members, supporters, commercial partners and players to Round 9 of the PS4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's competition.

As you are no doubt aware, last week our First Grade Coach resigned to return to Spain and whilst this was quite sudden I am extremely proud of the way everyone at the club has united to secure wins in both Round 5 of the Westfield FFA Cup against Picton Rangers and last Sunday against league leaders APIA. Special credit must go to our players, who went about their business professionally, and all of our coaching and support staff who assumed additional responsibility to ensure we remained focused. For those who attended our last match or watched online, I am sure you were as proud as we were by the skill and resilience our boys showed to win 2 - 1 at Lambert Park.

Assistant Coach, Peter Zorbas, has been made Interim First Grade Coach whilst the club works through the process of filling the coaching position permanently. We have every faith that he will successfully lead the squad through our next games as we face some tough opponents, just as he did last round.

Our Under 20s and 18s also showed great fight in their games against APIA last week, despite the results. They will surely be looking to prove themselves in today's matches.

Our Women's, Youth and SAP programs are now in full swing with all teams playing quality football. Our club has many up-and-coming young players and our commitment to developing youth continues to be at the forefront of our plans. I'd like to take this time to thank all the coaches and volunteers involved with these teams.

At SOFC we are committed to forming strong partnerships with our local schools and association clubs to ensure we can work together to increase participation in football at all levels. We are focused on boosting our presence in the community and fostering a positive environment to make Sydney Olympic the best it can be.

We have our third FFA cup match up next Wednesday 10th May at 7:30pm against Parramatta FC or Southern & Ettalong United FC at Belmore Sportsground. We look forward to seeing you turn out to support Olympic as we aim for success in our 2017 Westfield FFA Cup campaign.

I would like to thank our commercial partners for their ongoing support that powers Sydney Olympic, we cannot operate without their help.

Enjoy a great day of football and we hope to see you again at our FFA Cup match on Wednesday night.

MATCH PREVIEW

Traditional rivals Sydney Olympic FC and Sydney United 58 go head to head this week in a match which will have plenty of play-offs implications come the business end of the season.

Olympic, currently in fourth spot on the ladder has regrouped after the shock departure of coach Jaime Monroy and backed it up with a win against previously top of the table side APIA Leichhardt Tigers.

Expect Olympic to stick to a similar pass and possession heavy game plan under interim coach Peter Zorbas for the remainder of the season and especially against a side as dangerous as United 58.

Much has been said about Sydney United 58's resurgence in recent weeks after three consecutive losses to open the season.

The return of talismanic coach Mark Rudan has allowed United 58 to find it's clinical edge with their star studded line-up hitting their straps to deliver five straight wins.

There is always plenty of heart in these derby matches and Sunday's clash will be one you won't want to miss.

REVIEWS

APIA Leichhardt Tigers 1 - Sydney Olympic FC 2 at Lambert Park

Sydney Olympic has bounced back from the sudden resignation of coach to deliver an inspired 2-1 win against PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's competition leaders APIA Leichhardt Tigers at Lambert Park on Sunday.

The sudden departure of Portuguese head coach Jaime Monroy proved no distraction for the visitors as they notched their fifth win of the season in impressive style.

Olympic gave their travelling fans a performance to be proud of as they raced out of the block with Yu Kuboki and Radovan Pavicevic finding the net during the first half.

APIA struggled to find their way into the way during what was a lethargic performance from Danial Cummins' top of the table side. A late goal from tricky winger Corey Bizco proved to be a mere consolation for the home side as they suffered only their second defeat of the season.

Sydney United 58 FC 5 - Parramatta FC 0 at Sydney United Sports Centre

Sydney United 58 has piled more misery on Parramatta FC with a one sided 5-0 thrashing at Sydney United Sports Centre on Sunday.

Panny Nikas found the net from a cracking free kick as he led his side in a free scoring affair with Matt Sim scoring a double while, Glen Trifiro and Yutaro also found the back of the net.

Parramatta struggled to match it with a reinvigorated United 58 who appear nothing like the side which suffered a slow and frustrating start to the season.

Parramatta remain in 11th spot on the ladder, while the three points has Sydney United 58 move into fifth.

MATCH PREVIEW

Sydney Olympic have picked up two points from their last five matches and it won't get any easier for the reigning champions when rivals United 58 come to Belmore Sports Ground on Sunday lunchtime.

The Blues are shipping goals for fun currently having conceded 14 in their last three against Blacktown City, APIA Leichhardt and Manly United and with third-placed Sydney United 58 going about their business very diligently so far this season Olympic will need to summon a big performance at home.

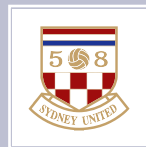

Antoni Zmire's side are riding high in third position and have proven themselves a very difficult side to break down, with just eight goals conceded so far – the equal best defensive record in the competition.
