KICKOFF

VS

ROUND 4 MARCONI STADIUM 7PM SATURDAY 31ST MARCH 2018

Marconi Stallions have had a great start to the 2018 season, so far undefeated, and will be focused on taking three points when they host reigning National Premier Leagues NSW Men's Champions Manly United. With Manly yet to win a game in the 2018 season, they will be out to give the Stallions a tough contest to break that losing streak.

Marconi have had one win, and one draw this season, and are well rested after last week's washout. The Stallions are looking forward to the return of their firepower upfront Sean Rooney who was victim of a heavy clash against Sydney United FC in Round 1 which saw him miss the second round against Bonnyrigg. No doubt Sean will be eager to get back out on the pitch and help his team walk away with the three points.

Marconi and Manly are two fierce competitors who no doubt will be up for a great night of football.

1ST GRADE MATCH PREVIEW

Marconi Stallions have had a great start to the 2018 season and will be focused on taking three points when they host reigning National Premier Leagues NSW Champions Manly United.

Yet to win a game in the 2018 season, Manly will be out to give the Stallions a tough contest to break that losing streak.

Marconi remain undefeated this season and are well rested after last week's washout.

The Stallions will welcome back key attacking player Sean Rooney who missed the club's second round clash after falling victim to a heavy clash against Sydney United FC in the opening week of the season.

Rooney will be eager to get back out on the pitch and help his team walk away with the three points.

For Manly the game couldn't be any more important. A loss here would be the fourth straight for Paul Dee's side.

The clash will also be the final of four away games to start the season for the side from the Northern Beaches and they will have to do so without attacking talent Scott Balderson who is again ruled out from injury after succumbing to a hamstring strain.

Marconi and Manly are two fierce competitors who no doubt will be up for a great night of football.

Marconi Stallions v APIA Leichhardt Tigers FC

Washed out

Sydney Olympic 2 – Manly United 1 at Belmore Sports Ground

Sydney Olympic have added to Manly United's horror National Premier Leagues NSW Championship defence toppling the northern beaches side 2-1 at Belmore Sports Ground on Sunday.

Goals to Jason Madonis and Alejandro Sanchez in the opening 15 minutes had Olympic in control for the majority of the match before Brendan Cholakian gave the visitors fleeting hope with a converted penalty in the closing stages of the match.

The defeat was Manly's third consecutive loss to start the season as Paul Dee's side struggle to get back to the form which led them to the title in 2017.

For Olympic it was a return to form after defeat at APIA Leichhardt Tigers seven days earlier.

Manly United are hoping for back to back wins when the Cromer Park outfit travel to Marconi to take on the Stallions at Marconi Stadium on Saturday afternoon.

Manly opened their account for the season with a fantastic 3-0 victory over Sydney Olympic last Sunday which should give a vastly rejuvenated squad confidence heading into the clash with Marconi.

Attacker Gianni Stensness marked his first appearance for the season with a brace against the Blues and will be one to marshal closely for the Marconi rearguard.

Having had their round three fixture against APIA Leichhardt postponed the visit of Manly represents a great chance for the newly promoted Stallions to notch their first win at home.

With the likes of Dalibor Malesevic and Brandon Stojcevski featured in a line up stacked with potential Marconi have high hopes for the 2018 campaign and would have earmarked this clash
